

Delegation Debate Activities: Topics

Choosing Debate Topics

This guide lists some general subject areas in which specific debate topics can be derived from. When choosing a topic or question to begin a debate on, it is important that there are multiple, nuanced perspectives or stances that can be held.

Economic

- Wealth/Wage Gap
- Student Loan Debt/Privatization & Corporatization of Education
- Global Poverty Levels
- Foreign Aid
- Universal Basic Income/Minimum Wage
- Tax Evasion

Social

- LGBTQ+ Rights
- Women's Rights
- Children's Rights
- Refugee/Immigration Rights
- Trafficking (Drug, Human, Child, etc.)
- Combatting Terrorism (Domestic/International)
- Child Labor/Workers' Rights
- Access to Education/Students' Rights
- Religious Protection

Environmental

- Nuclear Energy/Renewable Energy Development
- Impacts of Climate Change
- Air/Water Pollution
- Carbon Emissions
- Role of Governments, Companies and Individuals: Environmental Protection
- Biome/Species Conservation

Health

- Food Security/Malnutrition
- Maternal Rights/Reproductive Rights
- Access to Vaccines/Medicine & Treatment/Medical Equipment
- Subsidization of Healthcare
- Access to Clean Water/Air
- Mental Health Infrastructure & Ethical Treatment
- Epidemic Response/Treatments
- Antibiotic Resistance
- Food/Drug Safety

Technology, Science & Ethics

- GMOs/Genetically Modified Foods
- Ethics and Regulation of Genetic Engineering
- Digital Privacy & Security
- Scientific Research Regulation
- AI Development
- Privatization of Space

Military/Arms

- Nuclear Arms Development
- Government Defense Spending
- Arms Politics: Arms Rights & Arms Reduction
- Ethicality of International Bombings/Aerial Strikes

Need more ideas? Feel free to email us at: adg@pacificmun.com.